Dear Ms. Zadneprovskaja:

As you know applicant was scheduled for the PQME with Dr. Stroller on January 23, 2020 and enclosed herein you will find a brief letter to Dr. Stroller reminding him of the reporting requirements to issue the report within 30 days per California Code of Regulations Section 38.

Please also note that I received your third demand for Labor Code 5710 deposition fees in relation to applicant's deposition taken on October 10, 2019. I emailed Zachary Kweller of your office on January 23, 2020 at which time I indicated that I previously recommended deposition fee payments at $1,190.00, and although I am not sure why they have yet to be issued, I immediately contacted the client to have them issued. Should I receive confirmation from the client that the deposition fee payments were issued or will be issued I will immediately email your office.

Thank you for your attention to this matter Ms. Zadneprovskaja.

Kindest Regards,

Dear Dr. Stoller:

As you know this office represents defendants in the above-referenced matter and applicant had a PQME examination in your office on January 23, 2020.

At this time, please allow defendants to kindly remind you of California Code of Regulations Section 38 requiring that a PQME report be issued within 30 days of the examination. If you require longer than that 30 days, I strongly suspect that will not be an issue however if so, please contact the parties that way they can agree to the 30 day extension.

Thank you kindly in advance for your reporting Dr. Stoller.

Kindest Regards,

COLANTONI, COLLINS, MARREN, PHILLIPS & TULK, LLP
